

Minutes of the meeting of the Lakeshore Regional Planning Commission, Oct. 4, 2017

Members in attendance: George Bald, Robert Cheney, George Hurt, Edward "Rusty" McClear, Chris Shumway, Peter Spanos, Gino Baroni.

The meeting began at 10:00 AM in Room 100 at the State House in Concord, NH.

All members introduced themselves, then Senate President Morse spoke about the past efforts to sell the property. He believes that the property is a real gem that could provide great opportunities for the Laconia region and the State. He also said that the State was behind this effort and truly wanted to see a successful development of the site. Sen. Morse reminded the Commission that there are reporting requirements in the Legislation. He also offered the assistance of his staff to provide resources to assist the Commission in its work.

The Commission discussed involving Plymouth State University through the students and the administration. There was also discussion on getting accurate information such land surveys, wetland delineations, topographic information and environmental reviews.

There was a discussion of compiling information that would allow access by all members.

Bruce Cheney, Director of the Division of Emergency Services and Communications told the Commission that they had a building on site. He also offered the assistance of his team to provide site information.

The Commission would like a tour at a future date of the property as well as a briefing by a representative of the Department of Environmental Services to discuss the environmental issues at the site.

The Commission determined that meeting would be held Monday mornings. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 16 at 10:00 in Laconia.

Submitted

George Bald

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "George Bald", is written over the printed name.